

AGNEWS DEVELOPMENTAL CENTER

The 2003-04 Governor's  Budget tells  the Department of Developmental Services DDS to make  a plan  to close  Agnews  by July 2005.

California  law tells  the Department DDS what  has to be in the plan . It also tells  the Department DDS that it cannot close  Agnews  without the ok  of the California  Legislature

The plan  must talk  about:

1. How  closing  Agnews will affect the people  who live  there and their families .

2. Where people  who live at Agnews might live  if Agnews closes .

3. How  people  moving  will get  the services they need .

4. Jobs  for the people  who work at Agnews.

The plan  for closing  Agnews will be put together  by a Committee  of people  who live  and did live at Agnews, families  of people who live  at Agnews, people who work  at Agnews, advocates and others. This Committee  has met 2 times.

There are 6 Planning  Teams  that are talking  about the things  that have to be  in the plan . The teams then tell  the Committee about what  things  need  to be  in the plan .

The 3 regional centers by Agnews are putting together  plans  to get more  services so that people  from Agnews can be  near their families and friends .

Julie Wilstead  , who lives  at Agnews, is on  the Committee  doing the plan  . You  can ask her  about what  is going on  and tell  her  about what  is important to you  . Julie's  telephone number  is 451-6064.
